

Project Quantity Surveyor

Location: Teesside/Co Durham/Hybrid

Salary Package: Circa £40-50k/annum, Company Pension, 28-day Holidays, Annual Bonus

About Us:

Johnson Procurement Solutions Limited (JPS) is an independent consultancy based in the Northeast. With over eight years of experience supporting blue-chip clients such as Centrica, PX Group, Worley, United Living, Johnson Matthey, and WSP, we specialise in interim procurement and commercial support services. We represent clients in strategic supply chain and procurement activities across the UK and the Middle East.

At JPS, we focus on delivering interim strategic consultancy and project-based support, which includes:

- Project Procurement Strategy
- Major Project Procurement of Capital Equipment, Works Packages & Bulk Material requirement
- Post Contract Commercial Management & QS Support
- Feed & Estimating Support
- Supply Chain Analysis
- Strategic Programs & Category Framework Agreements

Responsibilities:

As a Project Quantity Surveyor at JPS, your responsibilities will include, but are not limited to:

- Understanding and identifying the client's key strategic requirements
- Developing project-specific contracting strategies and vendor engagement plans
- Work with procurement team to assist in setting the pre-qualification process criteria.
- Proven experience supporting engineering capital projects in sectors such as chemicals, oil & gas, energy, pharma, or civil engineering.
- Ability to provide commercial and QS support to live projects, including experience in procuring major subcontract packages or works contract packages such as civil works, Mechanical & Electrical Installation, etc.
- Post contract commercial management, managing live project costs, monitoring, variation management and payment of subcontract packages, monthly cost and End Life Forecasting and reporting, compilation and management of variations, contract negotiations, etc.
- RICS qualification is desirable but not essential.
- Good understanding of major project commercial strategies and best practice processes

Johnson Procurement Solutions Ltd

- Experience in negotiating and compiling contract T's&C's utilising NEC4, IChemE contract development
- This role offers hybrid working. The role holder is required to be office or site-based 3 days per week.
- Applicants must have the legal right to work in the UK.

Remuneration Package:

- Basic Salary: Circa £35-45,000 per annum (Reviewed annually)
- Employer Pension via SJP
- Holiday Entitlement: 20 days + 8 public holidays (28 days total)
- Continuous Professional Development (Fully Support CIPS and RICS qualifications if not already held).

Find out more:

Please send all application requests to email: Steven.johnson@jps-ltd.com